Immersed in the history and prestige of the renowned 1750 period context in Piazzale Cadorna, this splendid 70 sqm two-room apartment embodies elegance and refinement. Recently subjected to a complete renovation and redevelopment in class A1.

The entrance welcomes you into a bright environment, thanks to the large windows that illuminate the living area with open kitchen. The large double bedroom, enriched by a large walk-in wardrobe, promises comfort and relaxation, while the study offers an ideal space for concentration and creativity. The bathroom, carefully finished, completes the interiors.

In addition to the rationality of the interior spaces, the apartment is characterized by high attention to detail and equipped with every modern comfort. The centralized ceiling heating and air conditioning ensure maximum comfort in every season, while the armored door and video intercom guarantee safety and tranquility. Technology blends harmoniously with classic style thanks to the presence of a home automation system and a surround system, offering a cutting-edge living experience. In summary, this two-room apartment represents a rare opportunity for those looking for a combination of history and modernity, elegance and comfort. A prestigious investment in one of the most fascinating neighborhoods of Milan. The price of € 750,000.00 includes custom-made furnishings. Energy rating A1- 66.61.
